

TRIVIAL PURSUIT FAMILY EDITION

Ages 8 and up -- For 2 or more players.

It's a Trivial Pursuit game for families, ages 8 and up! This quick-play family trivia game includes 400 cards with 2,400 questions on 2 separate decks of cards: one for children and one for adults. The Trivial Pursuit Family Edition game features some fresh trivia questions and quick gameplay, including the Showdown challenge where 2 players compete for a pie wedge simultaneously. Play individually or in teams, taking turns moving around the board and answering questions correctly to win the pie wedges. Family members can test their smarts with question after question in 6 categories: Geography, Entertainment, History, Sports and Leisure, Arts and Literature, and Science and Nature. Be the first player or team to earn each of the 6 category wedges and answer a final question correctly to win.

Looking for an activity that kids and adults can enjoy during family time? Try the Trivial Pursuit game designed for families. It includes 2,400 questions for kids and adults. Players can test what they know with exciting questions from 6 categories: Geography, Entertainment, History, Sports and Leisure, Arts and Literature, and Science and Nature. This version of the game can be played quicker than the traditional Trivial Pursuit game -- great for game night.

The Trivial Pursuit Family board game was created with different ages in mind, so kids and adults can be excited about playing. It comes with 1200 easier questions for kids and 1200 more challenging questions for adults. Team up or play individually, and take turns moving around the board answering questions to win wedges. The first player or team to earn each of the 6 category wedges, and answer a final question correctly wins!

The Trivial Pursuit Family Edition game features some fresh questions and a quick pace, including a feature that can speed up play. The Showdown challenge allows 2 players to compete for a wedge at the same time. The trivia questions range in difficulty to help keep the pace going and everyone engaged. The Trivial Pursuit Family Edition board game is flexible. Families can play kids against adults for the ultimate contest. Or get together on teams that combine kids and adults. Participants can choose only one mover per team and roll the die, move, and answer questions as a team. Select kids' questions, adults' questions, or mix them together -- it's the family's choice.

Includes: game board, 400 cards, including 200 yellow cards for children and 200 blue cards for adults, 2 card holders, 6 movers, 36 wedges, die and instructions.
